

Ask them what they think!

Show it to your friends

Online, our ability to discuss and share serious topics is being whittled away.

Offline, we need to make the time, space, and scripts, to talk about these things face to face.

A zine is an object that opens the door to talk about the things we care about with the people we care about.

Use it wisely.
